

hooch & pooch

Co-Artistic Director
Christopher Carlos

Co-Artistic/Administrative Director
Tina Parker

Development Manager
Allison Moore

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Chair of the Board
Susan Albritton

President
Jerry Neisel

Vice President
Megan Duran

Secretary
Tom Timmons

Treasurer
Michael Thomas

Jason Ankele
Paul Barnes
Hon. Robert Cañas
Christopher Carlos
Anne Goyer
Ellen Key
Tina Parker
Karen Vassar

MEMBERS OF NATIONAL NEW PLAY NETWORK

Actor's Express, Atlanta
Actor's Theatre of Charlotte
Borderlands Theater, Tucson
Curious Theatre, Denver
Florida Stage, Manalapan
Florida Studio Theatre, Sarasota
Fountain Theatre, Los Angeles
Horizon Theatre, Atlanta
InterAct Theatre, Philadelphia
Kitchen Dog Theater, Dallas
Magic Theatre, San Francisco
Marin Theater, Mill Valley, CA
Mixed Blood Theatre, Minneapolis
New Jersey Repertory Theatre,
Long Branch
New Repertory Theatre,
Watertown, MA
New Theatre, Coral Gables, FL
Orlando Shakespeare Theater
Performance Network, Ann Arbor
Phoenix Theatre, Indianapolis
Playwrights Theatre of New Jersey, Madison
Prop Thtr Group, Chicago
Salt Lake Acting Company, Utah
Southern Rep, New Orleans
Unicorn Theatre, Kansas City
Victory Gardens, Chicago
Woolly Mammoth Theatre,
Washington, D.C.

How can you be a part of Kitchen Dog Theater's Hooch & Pooch, considered "among the year's best fundraisers"* in Dallas?

It's fun and easy! Join us as we strive to make this year's Hooch & Pooch fundraiser our best, most fabulous, ever. What better way to celebrate the "national-class thinking theater that Dallas deserves" (Dallas Morning News) than with a fantastically fun party?

A highlight every year is the tantalizing selection of "doggy bags" that party patrons purchase in droves. These "doggy bags" are filled with exciting items from businesses who support the arts and who want to attract the kind of people who frequent Kitchen Dog.

Your tax-deductible "doggy bag" donation (or two!) would be a terrific addition to our party—and a terrific help to Kitchen Dog Theater. At events past, we've had all kinds of wonderful donations: from sports tickets to jewelry, gift certificates to designer clothing, airline tickets to artwork. The possibilities are endless — be creative and surprise us!

So what's in it for you? Exposure. You'll be acknowledged as an event sponsor. Besides your presence in the "doggy bag" itself, you'll be featured on party signage during the event, in print materials (like our playbills), and on our event webpage, which stays up until we update it for next year's bash. You'll reach an incredibly wide, diverse audience — from those in Uptown to Downtown to Cowtown!

The Hooch & Pooch is KDT's largest yearly fundraiser, with proceeds supporting annual theatrical productions as well as artistic development projects like the nationally-recognized New Works Festival and PUP Fest, its high school playwriting program that KDT co-produces with the critically-acclaimed youth organization Junior Players.

It's also a whole lot of fun! This year's amazing H&P committee promises the twelfth annual Hooch & Pooch, co-hosted by premiere local designers Todd Fiscus and Rob Dailey, will be the most fabulous—and fun — ever. Guests will enjoy savory nibbles and drinks, while surrounded by a sleek décor provided by Mr. Fiscus' design company- todd. event design. creative services. They can groove to hot tunes, bid on sizzling silent auction items, pursue desirable raffle packages, and, of course, the "doggy bags" that you'll help make memorable.

The party is on Friday, March 19, 2010 in the ultra-hip Design District of Dallas at The Apartment. We look forward to seeing you there, and we appreciate your support.

Cordially,

Tina Parker
Co-Artistic Director/Administrative Director
Kitchen Dog Theater

* The Dallas Morning News, January 2005